1. Overview

Winners of Outstanding Organisation at the Westminster Community Awards, and described by The British Theatre Guide as 'one of London's leading youth arts companies', DreamArts fuses arts and therapy to transform young lives.

Our projects give members a safe place to explore who they are, understand their challenges and build their strengths.

'DreamArts has a profound impact on the lives of young people and is a model of exemplary practice.' The Royal Central School of Speech & Drama

The programme

DreamArts fuses arts and therapeutic practice to support wellbeing. Our acclaimed EXPERIMENT Programme engages 7-19-year-olds to explore and unleash their talents, try things out, express themselves and grow their skills. EXPERIMENT engages young people living in areas with some of the highest levels of child poverty in the UK. Participants take control and create their own original work, from musicals to short films, collaborating with leading facilitators and companies such as Les Enfants Terribles. EXPERIMENT takes place on a Saturday in South Westminster and on Sundays in North Westminster plus some special projects during school holidays; no other equivalent affordable programme exists in Westminster, the heart of UK Theatreland.

We are looking for team members who are able to inspire and support young people to devise their own work, that are passionate about engaging participants from marginalised communities, and are committed to support wellbeing through the arts. As a member of the DreamArts family you will access professional practice development including how to apply therapeutic approaches within your planning and delivery.

In in last year's staff satisfaction survey 100% of team members felt inspired at DreamArts to do their best at their job, and 100% said that their voice and skills matter at DreamArts.

DreamArts is committed to providing an integrative and inclusive programme and not to discriminate on the grounds of race, ethnic origin, nationality, or culture. We are also committed to becoming a more diverse and culturally representational organisation, therefore any applicant that identifies from a minoritized background and meets the essential criteria will be automatically selected for an interview.

2. Job Description

The candidate will be working with two groups of our regular Junior members ('Small' aged 7- 9yrs and 'Medium' aged 10-12yrs).
